

Form TI: Application for the Intermediate Certificate (180 hours) in the Theory of Individual Psychology and Adlerian Counselling skills

This form must be signed by the tutor(s) and sent to the Registrar at the above address. The administrative fee for issuing this certificate is £10 (please enclose a cheque payable to 'ASIIP').

Applicant's name (as you would like it to appear on the Certificate):

.....

Address:

.....

.....

.....

Dates of course attended:

Course tutors:

*I certify that the applicant has regularly attended the above course, which is recognised by the Institute for Individual Psychology, has met all the required course criteria and should be awarded an Intermediate Certificate in the Theory of Individual Psychology and Adlerian Counselling Skills.

Tutors' signatures: Date:

..... Date:

Please send the completed form with admin fee to the Registrar at the above address.

NB: The Intermediate Theory Certificate is not a full professional counselling qualification. It provides evidence of a basic understanding of the Theory of Individual Psychology, Personal Development and Adlerian Counselling Skills and is intended to form a foundation upon which those who wish to become Trainee Counsellors (and others) may build to further their training towards the Advanced Certificate in the Theory of Individual Psychology and Adlerian Counselling Skills.

