

Standards required for the role of Internal/External Moderator

Essential qualifications, knowledge and experience	Desirable qualifications, knowledge and experience
Member of BACP and ASIIP	IIP Accreditation BACP Accreditation
Professional insurance
IIP Diploma or the ability to demonstrate up-to-date subject knowledge and a high level of expertise by submitting a CV showing appropriate academic, vocational or professional qualifications and experience in Adlerian Psychology or closely related Adlerian subject area	Certificate in Supervision (e.g. Cambridge Supervision Training) Experience in assessment across a wide range of courses for which they were-appointed as moderator
A minimum of two years' experience as a professional trainer and/or experience as a qualified Adlerian therapist	To be a qualified Adlerian trainer
A minimum of 15 hours annual Adlerian CPD	Attends annual CPD related to good practice in training
Designated Moderation Mentor (contract with experienced Adlerian Moderator) in the first year of moderation practice

Further requirements

Moderators need:

To agree on a contract and programme for the course moderation with the Course Co-ordinator/Lead Tutor.

To disclose details of any dual relationships and clarify how boundaries were kept, within the BACP framework, in Moderation reports.

To work towards developing standards of good practice within ASIIP, e.g. by sharing good practice between Moderators through face-to-face meetings, telephone or electronic discussions.